2. In his letter of 24 February, [REDACTED] enclosed a check in the amount of $112.50 and acknowledged that he still owed a balance of $390.47.

25X1A

3. On 28 April, [REDACTED] acknowledged his indebtedness of $390.47 and asked if he could delay making final payment until after he had sold his house.

25X1A

4. On 5 May 1956, [REDACTED] forwarded a check in the amount of $225.00 and noted that this payment "should bring me up-to-date".

25X1A

5. On 14 November 1956, Mr. Saunders reminded [REDACTED] that he still owed the amount of $165.47.

25X1A

6. On 1 December 1956, [REDACTED] answered Mr. Saunder's letter of 14 November and said that he was under the impression that the indebtedness had been paid in full, but that it was possible for him to be wrong. He would check into his records and advise Mr. Saunders at a later date. On 28 December, [REDACTED] wrote to Mr. Saunders that he was entering the hospital and would be unable to check his records but that this would be done as soon as possible.
